

Southwest Florida Symphony Youth Orchestra
2009 – 2010 Concerto Competition

Monday November 16, 2009
Edison State College

Policies:

1. This competition is open to all students whose Southwest Florida Symphony Youth Orchestra membership is in good standing.
2. All applicants must audition on the work that will be performed if selected as a winner. No changes in music titles will be allowed.
3. The music chosen for audition must be for solo instrument(s) and orchestra.
4. All auditions must be performed with piano accompaniment. The student auditioning is responsible for providing his or her own accompanist. Contact Mr. Betz if assistance is needed in acquiring an accompanist.
5. Concerto competition judges may select one or two winners to perform with the youth orchestra. Judges are not required to declare any winners should they feel that no students auditioning are of a performance quality to be named a winner.
6. The decision of the judging panel is final.
7. A past competition winner cannot compete again on the same instrument.
8. Memorization of the solo work is not required for auditions but is required for performance.
9. The student must be prepared and be ready to perform the entire selected work or movement during the audition..
10. The level of difficulty of the orchestral accompaniment and availability of the music may be considered in making the final decision.
11. Out of consideration to all participants the competition is closed to all outside listeners.
12. After all applications have been turned in, an audition schedule and a list of procedures will be distributed to all qualifying applicants.
